Case studies

Explosive situation minimised

SITUATION

After five claimants were severely injured in an industrial circuit breaker explosion in the U.S. Southwest, McLarens was assigned to adjust the loss.

SCENARIO

We quickly built trust and cooperation between the insurer and insured.

OUTCOME

The claim was settled to the satisfaction of all parties, without the need to go to trial. The end result was structured settlements that minimised the overall cost to insurers.

Post crash liability reduction

SITUATION

A helicopter crash was caused by a broken bolt in its rotor assembly.

SCENARIO

The subsequent lawsuit, covering personal injuries, aircraft damage and loss of aircraft use, involved the parts and engine manufacturers, the aircraft maintenance company and the affected passengers.

OUTCOME

Representing the insureds at a court-ordered mediation conference, we negotiated a pre-trial settlement of the lawsuit and a 26% reduction in the insurer's anticipated final liability.
